Home is Where the Heart Is- 2 Page Layout

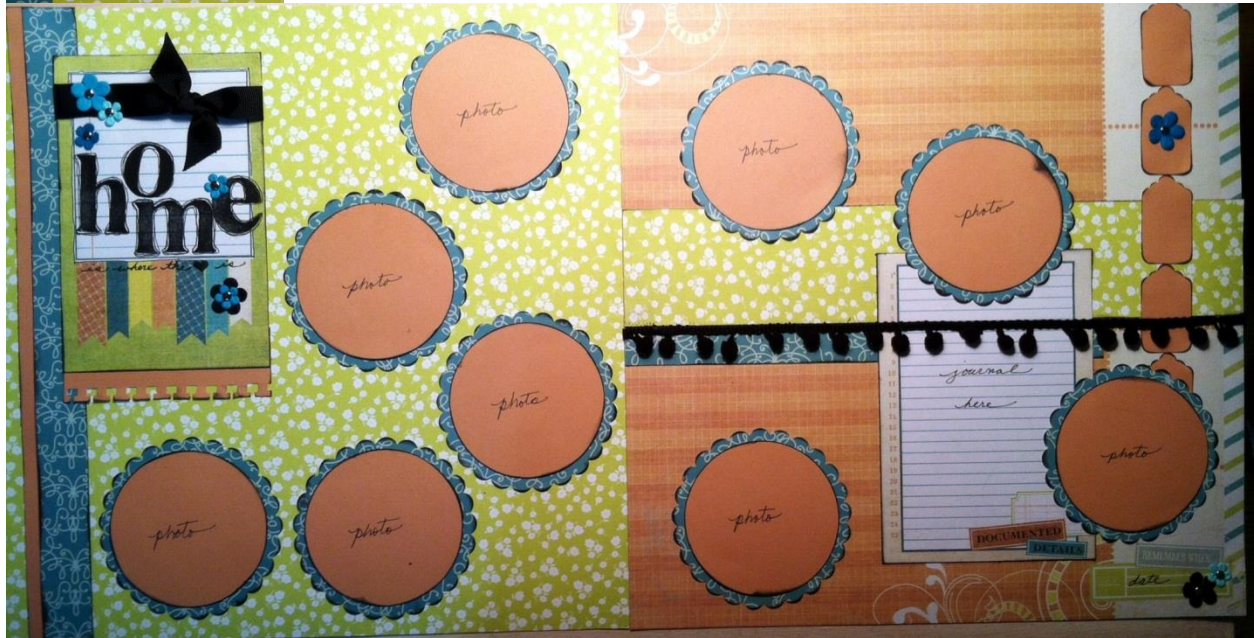

Kathy Fesmire

9am-10:30am

Join Kathy for this fun and informative class! We will punch (and punch, and punch), stamp and learn how to eek out every little piece from each of our products in this class! We will also discuss aspects of color and design theory and how to switch up your design for a totally different look. We will "resketch" this design for you to take with you to have a whole other layout based on this layout design that will look completely different! Class is limited to 15 so sign up early!

What to bring to class

Paper trimmer, Wet adhesive, dry adhesive, redline tape or other double sided adhesive tape, scissors, black ink, black pen, paper piercer (if desired)

Halloween Bag Album

Sara Preston

9am-10:30am

This is such a fun album to both display and look through! There's a surprise in every pocket. We'll be making this album from scratch using paper bags and some brand new halloween paper from Echo Park 'Ghost Town' . We will embellish with ink, stickers & ribbon. Class Max @15

Class Supplies: Please bring to class your paper trimmer, scissors, adhesive (lots!), favorite distressing ink and stapler.

Journey Album

Beth Gerber

9am-10:30am

In this class we will construct a 4"x 5" covered shadow box with shelves to display mementos from your journey. Maps, bottles, flowers, a butterfly, and shells, are included, or bring your own if you have a specific theme in mind. There is also a 3 ¼" x 4 ¼" album that fits inside the box. The album has 18 pages and employs an easy and unique book binding technique. Six of the pages are Vellum for journaling or drawing. The papers are from the 7 Gypsies Maritime, and the Madame Payrauds collections.

Class is open to all skill levels. Instructions with photos are included. This class is limited to 11 participants.

Supplies needed: Large, good quality glue stick (Avery, UHU, or Scotch), PVA glue (Aileen's, Elmer's glue all), distress ink and sponge, scissors, ruler, bone folder, large glue dots, hot glue will be provided.
