RECENT ACTIONS OF CITY COUNCIL

None

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Board Chairperson Pat Gengozian mentioned that the City Council voted and approved moving on the Senior Center project. She also said that they were very complimentary on of the work that the board had accomplished. Board member Marty Adler-Jasny also said that the covered drop off had been removed from the design of the building and been placed as an optional item that could be returned if the bids came in low enough. The cost of covered drop off was reported as $28,000. Also omitted for cost lowering were funds for furniture for the new building. These items could be reinstated in the project if it comes in under budget when the bids are received. Board member Robert Smallridge made a motion that a letter thanking council and reminding them of the importance of the covered drop off area be sent. Mr. Richard Hauser seconded the motion and it passed unanimously by board members present.
